

INDIANA UNIVERSITY

Welcome to Indiana University!

Form I-9

- Indiana University must complete a Form I-9 to ensure you are eligible to work in the United States.
- Each new or returning employee must complete a Form I-9.
- Indiana University has partnered with HireRight to provide a web-based system for completing the Form I-9 online.
- You will receive an email from an employee with the hiring department that will provide you with information to log in and complete the form.
- Read through these instructions carefully and contact your hiring department if you have any questions.
- You must complete Section 1 of the Form I-9 before the end of your first day of employment.
- Once you complete the form, the system will provide a list of acceptable documents to be used to verify your identity and employment authorization.
- You will then bring the hiring department or their authorized representative one document from List A OR a combination of one document from List B and one from List C.
- It is up to you, which document(s) you provide, but generally, only unexpired, original documentation is acceptable.
- The hiring department or their authorized representative must complete Section 2 of the Form I-9 by examining the documents within 3 business days of your first day of employment.

Login Email from HireRight

The email containing your log in credentials will come from HireRight. Be sure to check you junk mail folder if you don't receive the email.

Below is an example of the email you will receive:

Dear New Employee,

Welcome to the Indiana University team!

A Form I-9 is required by the Department of Homeland Security for newly hired employees. Section 1 of the Form I-9 is required by the first day of work. Please follow the link below and use the provided credentials to log in and complete this form.

Once you are logged in, you will need to create a new and unique password in case you need to access your Form I-9 again at a later date.

The Form I-9 must be completed in its entirety within 3 business days of the date employment begins.

Please note, if you do not currently have a social security number, you will need to obtain one so IU can complete the E-Verify portion of the I-9. If you do not have one at this time, please select the check box next to: 'The Social Security Administration has not yet issued me a Social Security Number.'

Is this form being prepared by an individual other than the employee?

☐ A preparer(s) and/or translator(s) assisted the employee in completing Section 1.

If one or more preparers or translators assist the employee in completing Section 1, the preparer or translator must select this option. Also, Parents or legal guardians attesting to the identity of minors (individuals under 18) and individuals attesting to the identity of certain employees with disabilities must select this option.

☐ I did not use a Preparer or Translator.

Note: Preparer and/or Translator Certification

- If a translator or person other than yourself helps you complete the form, they will need to choose the bullet “yes”, shown above.
- The preparer will need to enter the information in the fields provided.
- After you answer the question, click “Next”.

After completing the preparer translator field enter your employee information. Information needed include: Legal first name, legal last name, a middle initial (if you have one), any additional last names you may have, current address, your date of birth, e-mail address and telephone number.

Some fields are required and you will not be able to move forward until you enter information. The system will highlight these in red if they are not completed.

Name of Employee	Legal First Name (Given Name) Enter your full legal first name. Your first name is your given name. Some examples of correctly entered first names include Jessica, John-Paul, Tae Young, D'Shaun, Mai. If you only have one name, enter it in the Legal Last Name field, then enter "Unknown" in this field. You may not enter "Unknown" in both this field and the Legal Last Name field. <input type="text" value="John"/>
	Legal Last Name (Family Name) Enter your full legal last name. Your last name is your family name or surname. If you have two last names or a hyphenated last name, include both names in this field. Examples of correctly entered last names include De La Cruz, O'Neill, Garcia Lopez, Smith-Johnson, Nguyen. If you only have one name, enter it in this field, then enter "Unknown" in the Legal First Name field. You may not enter "Unknown" in both this field and the Legal First Name field. <input type="text" value="Smith"/>

Next, carefully choose your citizenship or immigration status.

The screenshot shows a web form titled "Citizenship or Immigration Status Worksheet". At the top left, it says "All fields are required". The form is divided into two main sections. The left section is labeled "Status" and is currently empty. The right section is titled "What is your citizenship or immigration status?" and contains four radio button options. The first option is "A citizen of the United States". The second option is "A noncitizen national of the United States", followed by a paragraph explaining that noncitizen nationals are persons born in American Samoa, certain former citizens of the former Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, and certain children of noncitizen nationals born abroad. The third option is "A lawful permanent resident", followed by a paragraph explaining that a lawful permanent resident is any person who is not a U.S. citizen and who resides in the United States under legally recognized and lawfully recorded permanent residence as an immigrant. The fourth option is "An alien authorized to work", followed by a paragraph explaining that any person who is not a citizen or national of the United States or a lawful permanent resident, but are authorized to work in the United States. At the bottom of the form, there is a blue button.

Note: The status: A noncitizen national of the U.S. is for persons born in American Samoa, certain former citizens of the former Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, and certain children of noncitizen nationals born abroad. It is not an acceptable status for an international employee to use on the Form I-9.

Once you select a citizenship status. Complete the screen that will appear for your option as shown below and click the Proceed to Form I-9 Completion Button.

- A citizen of the United States—natural born or legally recognized citizen.

The screenshot shows a web form with a light blue background. On the left, there is a label "Social Security Number". On the right, there are two input fields. The top input field is labeled "Enter your SSN". The bottom input field is labeled "Please enter your SSN again".

Once you have completed your citizenship status field, please complete the Social Security number field.

- A noncitizen national of the United States—persons born in America Samoa, certain former citizens of the former Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, and certain children of noncitizen nationals born abroad.

Note: this is a very infrequent status. Check with initiating department if you think you are a noncitizen national of the US.

- A lawful permanent resident—person who is not a United States citizen and who resides in the United States under legally recognized and lawfully recorded permanent residence as an immigrant. Once you have completed your citizenship status field, please complete the Social Security number field.
- An alien authorized to work—person who is not a citizen, national or a lawful permanent resident but is authorized to work in the United States.
 - Enter the date that your employment authorization expires, if any.

<input checked="" type="radio"/> An alien authorized to work Any person who is not a citizen or national of the United States or a lawful permanent resident, but are authorized to work in the United States.

Work authorization expiration	Does your work authorization have an expiration date? Enter the date your employment authorization expires, if any, in this field. In most cases, your employment authorization expiration date is found on the document(s) evidencing your employment authorization. Refugees, asylees and certain citizens of the Federated States of Micronesia, the Republic of the Marshall Islands, or Palau, and other aliens whose employment authorization does not have an expiration date should select "No" and click the below box. In some cases, such as if you have temporary protected status, your employment authorization document may have been automatically extended; in these cases, you should enter the expiration date of the automatic extension in this field. <input type="radio"/> Yes <input type="radio"/> No

Note--If you have not received your social security number, select "No" and Check the box next to, "I confirm that the Social Security Administration has not yet provided me with this number".

If you do not have an employment expiration date, checkmark the box below the date field. If using Alien Number you will need to enter your Alien Work Until Date (this date appears on your work authorization document) and your Alien Number or USCIS Number:

Or if using your Form I-94 Admission Number, you will need to enter your Alien Work Until Date (this date appears on your work authorization document) and your I-94 Number.

Or if using your Passport information, you will need to enter your Alien Work Until Date (this date appears on your work authorization document), passport number and Country of Issuance.

Once you have completed your citizenship status field, please complete the Social Security number field.

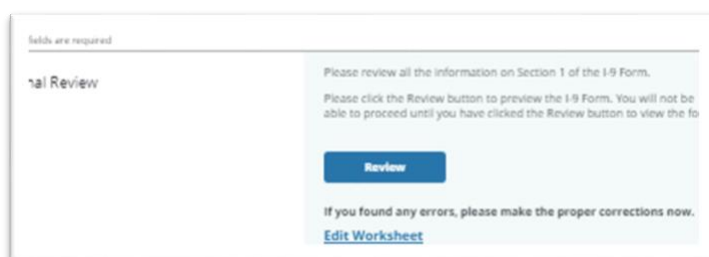

Note: If you do not yet have your Social Security Number follow the directions below.

If you have not received your social security number, select “No” and Check the box next to, “I confirm that the Social Security Administration has not yet provided me with this number”.

The screenshot shows the 'Social Security Number' field. To the right, there is a question: 'Have you been issued a Social Security Number (SSN)?'. Below this question are two radio button options: 'Yes' and 'No'. The 'No' option is selected. Below the radio buttons is a checkbox with the text 'I confirm that the Social Security Administration has not yet provided me with this number'. At the bottom of the section, there is a red warning message: 'A social security number is required on this form and you must provide your number if you have one. If you do not yet have an SSN issued, you will be asked to provide one once it is issued.'

After completing the citizenship/SSN portion you will be taken to the review and signature screen as shown below:

The screenshot shows the 'Final Review' screen. At the top, it says 'Fields are required'. Below this, there is a section titled 'Final Review'. The text in this section reads: 'Please review all the information on Section 1 of the I-9 Form. Please click the Review button to preview the I-9 Form. You will not be able to proceed until you have clicked the Review button to view the fo'. Below this text is a blue button labeled 'Review'. At the bottom, there is a message: 'If you found any errors, please make the proper corrections now.' followed by a blue link labeled 'Edit Worksheet'.

After reviewing the I-9 as completed, you may click the back button at the bottom of the screen to make corrections, or complete the electronic signature section (see screen shot below). Once you have completed this section click E-sign & Save.

The screenshot shows the 'E-Signature' section of the I-9 form. It includes an 'Attestation' section with a checkbox and text: 'I attest, under penalty of perjury, that: (1) I have examined the document(s) presented by the above-named employee, (2) the above-listed document(s) appear to be genuine and to relate to the employee named, and (3) to the best of my knowledge the employee is authorized to work in the United States.' Below this is the 'E-Signature' section with fields for 'First Name' (Allison) and 'Last Name' (Dunbar). There is a large box for the signature with a handwritten signature and a 'Clear' button. At the bottom, there are two checkboxes: 'I understand that I am using electronic means to sign this agreement...' and 'I understand that by typing my information above, I am certifying that I am the person identified by this information...'. A green button 'E-Sign, Save and Run E-Verify' and a 'Back' button are at the bottom.

After the form has been submitted, you will receive a confirmation as shown below.

The screenshot shows a confirmation page titled 'Thank you for your information!'. It has a section 'I-9 Employment Eligibility Verification' with the text: 'Thank you for completing Section 1 of your I-9 Form. Please note your I-9 is still considered incomplete until you have presented the required documents confirming work authorization and identity in person to your employer and they have completed Section 2.' Below this is a 'Communication Preferences' section with the text: 'We can text alerts and status updates to your mobile phone (text charges may apply). Would you like us to send notifications to:'. There are two radio buttons: 'Between' (selected) and 'Anytime'. The 'Between' option has dropdowns for '9:00am', '5:00pm', and 'Canada/Atlantic'. There are also fields for 'Country Code' (+1) and 'Phone Number'.

List of Acceptable Documents

- On the confirmation screen you may click on a link to display an example list of approved documents to present to the hiring department or their authorized representative for verifying your identity and employment authorization.
- It is up to you which document(s) you provide, but generally, only unexpired, original documentation is acceptable.

After Completing Section 1...

- The hiring department will receive an email notification that you have completed section 1.
- If the hiring department reviews Section 1 and discovers that it was not properly filled out you will need to complete Section 1 again.
- Corrections may be made to Section after completion. To do so, contact your hiring department.
- You may log back in after logging out, if you still need to complete a field.
