Our employees are among the university's most valued resources. If you haven't already, you'll want to visit the Benefits page (<http://hr.iu.edu/employment/benefits.html>) to learn about the excellent benefits of working for IU, including health care, retirement plans, and tuition assistance.

Salary information for most positions is available on the Salary page (<http://hr.iu.edu/salary/index.htm>). Click "Position-specific Information" and select the type of position for which you are applying.

Indiana University is an equal employment and affirmative action employer and a provider of ADA services. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to age, ethnicity, color, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation or identity, marital status, national origin, disability status or protected veteran status. Indiana University does not discriminate on the basis of sex in its educational programs and activities, including employment and admission, as required by Title IX. Questions or complaints regarding Title IX may be referred to the U.S. Department of Education Office for Civil Rights or the university Title IX Coordinator. See Indiana University's Notice of Non-Discrimination here which includes contact information.

The Annual Security Reports, containing policy statements and crime statistics for Indiana University campuses, are available through Public Safety and the IU Police Department web sites at protect.iu.edu/police-safety/annual-reports/index.html. A paper copy will be provided upon request from Public Safety at iups@iu.edu.

Good luck in your search for employment with Indiana University.
