

CIGNA WILL PREPARATION PROGRAM

Helping employees and their spouses protect their assets and secure their family's financial future

More than 64% of Americans do not have a will,<sup>1</sup> giving them little or no control over matters after they die. Thinking ahead and providing clear directives is an important part of planning for a family's financial future. At Cigna, we know there's more to life, which is why we provide employees and their spouses with access to a robust suite of tools that help them build state-specific, customized wills and other legal documents.

CignaWillCenter.com

The Cigna Will Center is an easy to use online tool available seven days a week, 365 days a year. Phone representatives are also available to assist via a toll-free number.<sup>2</sup>

Employees and spouses can complete and store essential life and health care legal documents online, such as:

- › Last will and testament – specifies what is to be done with property, appoints an estate executor and identifies a guardian for minor children
- › Living will – specifies wishes regarding use of extraordinary life support
- › Health care power of attorney – grants someone permission to make medical decisions if person is unable to do so
- › Financial power of attorney – grants someone permission to make financial decisions on the person's behalf
- › Medical authorization for minors – allows parents/guardians to provide authorization for medical personnel to treat a child in the event they are not present

Resources to help with funeral planning:

- › Informational guidebooks – in-depth, easy-to-understand information that helps document end-of-life wishes in advance
- › Personal information organizer tool – organize important personal data, account information, contacts, and end-of-life wishes all in one place

Once registered with Cigna's Will Center, employees and spouses can:

- › Follow intuitive, interactive steps to create customized legal documents
- › Create, store and update legal documents<sup>3</sup>
- › Preview, edit, download and print legal documents
- › Review valuable funeral planning information
