

IMPORTANT—PLEASE READ ALL INFORMATION ON REVERSE SIDE BEFORE COMPLETING THIS FORM

To avoid being billed for full tuition, you are encouraged to submit this application well before the beginning of the academic year each fall. All applications must be submitted by the semester/term deadline to receive the IU Tuition Benefit. If this application is processed before the deadline, but after the student is billed for tuition, the IU Tuition Benefit becomes a reimbursement after the student has paid all tuition.

IMPORTANT—PLEASE READ ALL OF THE INFORMATION BELOW BEFORE COMPLETING THE APPLICATION.

You are responsible for being aware of all the eligibility requirements and application procedures. Any person who knowingly makes a false statement or a misrepresentation of information pertaining to this application shall be (1) subject to cancellation of further IU Tuition Benefit, and (2) liable for repayment of IU Tuition Benefit received.

ELIGIBILITY

Employee and Retiree Eligibility - The following categories of individuals associated with Indiana University are eligible for the IU Tuition Benefit. To be eligible, the individual must have such status by the end of the first week of classes or at the time of registration for IUHS courses.

- Full-time (75% FTE or greater) appointed Academic & Staff employees (including IU Residents);
- Full-time (75% FTE or greater) appointed Academic and Staff employees (including IU Residents) on an approved leave of absence, other than a leave without pay prior to active employment.
- Former employees with IU Retiree Status.
- Disabled former full-time (75% FTE or greater) appointed Academic & Staff employees (including IU Residents) receiving long-term disability benefits from a university-sponsored plan, Social Security Administration, or PERF.

Spouse Eligibility - A spouse means one by marriage, either opposite-sex or same-sex, legally entered into in one of the 50 states, the District of Columbia, or a U.S. territory or a foreign country. The spouse must meet the definition of a spouse of an eligible employee or retiree, or of a deceased employee or retiree who was eligible at the time of their death, by the first day of the semester or term.

Dependent Child Eligibility - A dependent child is the biological or adopted child, stepchild, or child whose legal guardian is an eligible individual. The child must also:

- be unmarried; and
- be 23 years of age or under, and
- meet the IRS support test as a qualifying child of the employee or spouse.

The dependent child must meet the definition of a dependent child of an eligible employee or retiree, or of a deceased employee or retiree who was eligible at the time of their death, by the first day of the semester or term.

SUBSIDY AMOUNTS

Employee & IU Retiree Tuition Benefit - Tuition costs up to a specified dollar maximum based on the campus of attendance and degree program.

Spouse Benefit - Tuition costs up to a specified dollar maximum based on the campus of attendance.

Dependent Child Benefit - 50% of tuition costs at the Indiana resident undergraduate rate, up to the completion of a bachelor's degree or up to a maximum of 140 credit hours of IU Tuition Benefit awards, whichever comes first, as long as they remain an eligible dependent. The benefit does not apply to audit hours or graduate coursework but can be applied toward multiple campuses of attendance each semester.

Benefit Amount(s) - Benefit maximums for each academic semester/term are available at hr.iu.edu/benefits/tuition-ratetable.htm. All Summer sessions combined are considered one semester.

IU TUITION BENEFIT PLAN PROVISIONS

Exclusions - Covered tuition includes the per-credit-hour tuition rate charged to a student, excluding special fees, such as those for music performance studies, student teaching, laboratories, early education experience, advanced dissertation research (B798, G831, G901, or equivalent), testing out of courses, rental of special equipment or facilities, and fees for non-credit courses. Mandatory student fees, such as student technology, activity, or athletic fees are not considered tuition and are not covered under this plan. Covered individuals are responsible for all tuition costs over the benefit maximum and excluded fees.

Dual Eligibility - Individuals are not eligible to receive benefits as both an employee and a dependent or as a dependent of more than one employee.

Registration for courses during work hours - Employees who wish to enroll in university classes scheduled during normal work hours must obtain advance approval from the associated department head. See the applicable Training and Education policy for provisions about covering time away from the job.

Course Registration/Enrollment changes - The IU Tuition Benefit award can be increased, reduced or canceled if the student's enrollment changes result in changes to the amount of the tuition benefit award eligibility. The Office of the Bursar will adjust the student's bursar account accordingly.

Advance College Project (ACP) Courses - The IU Tuition Benefit (a subsidy of 50% of the tuition) is applicable to ACP courses. Additional information about ACP can be found at acp.iu.edu.

Benefit Taxation - IRS Section 117 regulations allow for preferential tax treatment of the IU Tuition Benefit for undergraduate-level courses. Undergraduate subsidy amounts are excluded from the employee's taxable income. IRS Section 127 (as described in the IU Section 127 Plan document) allows the preferential tax treatment of up to $5,250 annually for employee subsidies paid toward graduate-level tuition, but only for those individuals listed under the Employee and Retiree Eligibility section. Graduate-level tuition subsidies for courses taken by a spouse are treated as taxable income to the associated employee or retiree, as well as subsidies for graduate-level tuition for an employee above the $5,250 annual limit. In accordance with IRS regulations, it does not matter which family member received the graduate-level tuition subsidy, the IU Tuition Benefit is an employee/retiree benefit. Therefore, the employee or retiree is responsible for applicable taxes. Such taxes will be deducted from the employee's pay, and in the case of a retiree, the value of the graduate-level IU Tuition Benefit will be reported as taxable gross income. For additional information, visit the Fringe Benefits web page or email taxpayer@iu.edu.

Ineligibility for IU Tuition Benefit - IU Tuition Benefit awards are reduced or canceled if the student's or employee's eligibility ceases. Eligibility for the IU Tuition Benefit will cease at the conclusion of the semester/term in which:

- The employee is no longer an eligible individual, in accordance with plan provisions, for reasons other than disability, death or termination with IU Retiree Status; or
- The spouse or the dependent child cease to meet the definitions of a spouse or dependent child, respectively, as specified in the plan; or
- The dependent child receives a bachelor's degree, or the child accumulates 140 credit hours of IU Tuition Benefit awards, whichever comes first.

REQUIRED FORMS & PRIORITY DATES

- Proof that an individual is a qualified dependent (marriage or birth certificate, guardianship orders, as applicable) is required at the time of initial enrollment and periodically thereafter. Failure to provide proof of dependent eligibility within 30 days of the university's written request for such proof may result in the termination of the IU Tuition Benefit award.
- The IU Tuition Benefit does not automatically renew. An IU Tuition Benefit Application must be completed each academic year.
- A separate enrollment form needs to be completed for each student and for each campus of attendance. For employees/retirees and spouses only one IU Tuition Benefit subsidy will be applied each semester/term. The subsidy amount can be split over multiple campuses.
- If the application is processed after the student has been billed for tuition, the student is responsible for paying the full tuition bill by its due date. Once the application form is processed, the student will receive a refund through the Office of the Bursar.
