November 23, 1994

This letter of agreement between Indiana University and the Communication Workers of America (CWA) will go into effect when signed by both parties at the bottom of the page.

Indiana University is committed to initiating a program to update the Clerical and Technical classification levels on the Bloomington campus. As a part of that initiative, the University will work cooperatively with the CWA and agrees to the following:

   Within thirty (30) days after receipt of such information, the parties shall meet periodically (not less than twice a month) with the goal of reducing or revising the number of classification levels and job titles on the Bloomington campus.

   The Union may request additional information during this process.

Indiana University and CWA agree that this is an important issue which needs to be addressed and will make the proposal available to those involved in the budgetary process prior to and during the development of any future budgets.
